Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's soccer team hosts the Grace College Lancers in non-conference action tonight at Yellow Jacket Field.

Cedarville is 2-1 overall after defeating Taylor University 3-1 Tuesday in Upland, Indiana. The Lancers dropped the first two matches of their season but have won three straight heading into tonight's match. Grace posted a 5-0 win at Calumet St. Joseph on Thursday night.

The 2005 Jackets will attempt to fill the void left by Jane Adams, who graduated as CU's all-time leading scorer which included school records of 21 goals and 19 assists last fall. Head Coach John McGillivray is confident there is enough depth at the forward position to maintain a consistent offensive threat. Junior Lisa Blackburn is the squad's top returning scorer with 11 goals and 3 assists last season. Third-leading scorer Karen Ruhlman, a junior forward, is back after netting 9 goals with 6 assists in 2004. Jessica Schmidt brings additional offensive firepower as a transfer from Miami University (OH).

There is significant depth at the midfield position as well. Senior Nicole James is a four-year starter who tallied two goals with three assists in 2004. Junior Abby Price returns with plenty of experience after seeing action in 22 matches last year. Seniors Jillian Losee and Erin Baranski will also help patrol the midfield position. Senior Krista Watson, who has been cleared to play after several injury-plagued seasons, could also be a pleasant surprise as an offensive weapon.

Cedarville leads the all-time series with the Lancers by a 6-2 tally including a 5-0 shutout win last September 11 at Winona Lake and a 4-0 victory at home on November 6 in the NCCAA Midwest Region championship match.

Last Time Out

Lisa Blackburn scored twice to lead the Lady Jackets to a 3-1 win at Taylor in non-conference action last Saturday. It was the second straight victory for CU following a season-opening loss while the host Trojans dip to 2-4 overall. The two teams had each split two decisions in the Cedarville Classic over the weekend, but did not play one another.

Lisa Blackburn

Blackburn, who was second on the 2004 club in scoring with 11 goals, got the offense going with her first goal of the season in the 4th minute on an assist from Abby Price. Katie Mariani made it 2-0 in the 17th minute with Colleen Derry assisting. The score remained that way until the Trojans got on the board in the 73rd minute, but Blackburn needed just two minutes to account for the final with an unassisted goal.

Taylor had a 19-10 advantage in total shots and a 12-6 margin in shots on goal. Cedarville did not attempt a corner kick in the match while the Trojans had eight. Sarah Gibson was credited with 11 saves in goal for the Lady Jackets.

Up Next

The Lady Jackets hit the road for the next seven matches before coming back to Yellow Jacket Field. The squad faces Rio Grande, Saint Francis (IN), Indiana Wesleyan, Ohio Northern, Otterbein, Tiffin and Malone. Cedarville returns home on Tuesday, Oct. 4 for an American Midwest Conference South Division contest against the Mount Vernon Nazarene University Cougars. Kick-off is scheduled for 5 p.m.

Yellow Jacket Field

Cedarville University continues to produce some of the finest athletic facilities in the country. A new soccer complex which is surrounded by an eight-lane track and lights was opened for soccer play in the fall of 2002 while the track opened for competition the spring of 2004. The facility was built under the supervision of athletic director Pete Reese.

The soccer field is a 120 x 73 yard natural turf playing surface which includes an irrigation system. The complex features an electronic scoreboard, press box, and ample seating for 2,000 fans.
